

FY14 Officer Enhanced Selective Early Retirement Board (ESERB) Eligibility Information

There are adjustments to AFSC/YEAR GROUPS throughout this matrix (when compared to the matrix dated 20 May 14). There are additional AFSC/YEAR GROUPS that are no longer eligible because the Air Force achieved the required losses through voluntary retirement and separation applications.

How to read and interpret Involuntary Force Management Board matrix:

The FY14 ESERB matrix lists all AFSCs and Year Groups (YGs) eligible for the FY14 ESERB. The matrix lists, for each AFSC, the estimated number of eligible officers by YG, the estimated total number of eligible officers, and the estimated total ESERB overages.

- The estimated eligible number in each AFSC/YG block tells you how many officers, in a particular YG, meet the eligibility criteria as identified in PSDM 13-126, CY14 Enhanced Selective Early Retirement Boards for Lieutenant Colonel and Major, located on the myPers Officer Force Management page. Not all personnel within an identified AFSC/YG meet involuntary board eligibility requirements.
- The estimated total eligible number for each AFSC tells you how many officers from that AFSC meet the eligibility criteria as identified in PSDM 13-126.
- The estimated total ESERB overage in each AFSC tells you how many losses need to be achieved through the FY14 ESERB.

GRAY boxes indicate AFSC/YGs that are ineligible for the ESERB.

Notes:

- The estimated total ESERB overage numbers will decrease as voluntary applications are approved.

Frequently Asked Questions Regarding the FY14 ESERB Matrices

Q1. If there is an overage number listed for my AFSC/YG, does that mean I'm going to meet the FY14 ESERB?

A1. If your AFSC contains an overage number, AND you are in a YG identified in the matrix, AND you meet the criteria outlined in PSDM 13-126, then you are currently scheduled to meet an involuntary board. However, if voluntary losses (e.g. retirements, Limited Active Duty Service Commitment waivers, etc) reduce the overages to zero, then your AFSC will no longer meet the ESERB.

Q2. My AFSC/YG is gray and has no number. Am I eligible for the FY14 ESERB?

A2. No. If you belong to an AFSC/YG that is grayed out, then you will NOT meet the FY14 ESERB.

FY14 Officer Enhanced Selective Early Retirement Board (ESERB) Eligibility Information

Q3. I received a notification that I will be meeting the FY14 ESERB. However, my AFSC/YG box now says “CLOSED.” Am I going to meet the board?

A3. No. You are not going to meet the board.

Q4. If my eligibility box went from red to blue on the Voluntary Eligibility Matrix, does this mean I’m going to meet the FY14 ESERB?

A4. No. Although overages may now exist in your AFSC/YG, Airmen who have been ineligible to apply for voluntary programs at any time since the original matrix was posted on 23 Jan will NOT meet FY14 involuntary boards.

Q5. If I’m ineligible to meet the FY14 ESERB, does that mean I’m ineligible for the voluntary separation programs?

A5. Not necessarily—there are some AFSCs with gray boxes that may still be eligible for the voluntary programs being offered. Please check the “Officer Voluntary Force Management Program Eligibility Matrix” on myPers to see which AFSC/YGs are currently eligible to apply for voluntary programs.

Q6. Will these numbers change?

A6. Yes, as Airmen in your AFSC/YG volunteer to separate or retire, the overage numbers will decrease. We will post updated numbers periodically.
